To whom it may concern

I have used Stroma Ltd on three separate occasions and Steve has always delivered a prompt and quality service, which is how I have built my reputation and business.

The last occasion was a simple and straightforward job for him as I needed a large quantity of laminated 'wet paint' signs, with my name and company logo, telephone number etc.. for a large contract which was starting on the Wednesday following our Friday meeting.

When I got home that Friday the order had already been delivered, within eight hours of the order being placed.

A truly first class service.

I am now asking Steve for new business cards and headed paper...and I would like them delivered before lunch.

I have no hesitation in recommending Stroma Ltd for any printing works that may be required.

Sincerely,
